Date and time of Competitions:	Saturdays and Sundays in January and February 2005, except 1st, 2nd, 22nd and 23rd January, 5th, 6th, 12th and 13th February 2005. Game starts at 2:30pm for Saturdays and 8:30am for Sundays. Semi-finals & Finals: Sunday 27th February 2005
Rules:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Separate tournaments are held for Men (above 25), Ladies (above 25), Men (25 and below) and Ladies (25 and below). • Singles shall be played between two players; each player shall play a set of 4 Bowls singly and alternately. Each game will have 3 sets; 9 ends each for the first and second sets and 3 ends for the tie break. For the first and second sets, the player with the higher accumulated number of shots in each set will score 1 point. If the set is draw between the players, then each player will score 0.5 point. After finishing the first two sets, if each player scores 1 point, then they have to play the tiebreak for an additional 0.5 point. Players can only go up to see the head after their third bowl. • Shots gained in the tiebreak will not be included for shot difference calculations. • In case there is a tied end in the tiebreak which cause a tie after finishing the 3 ends, then a fourth end will be played. • In the preliminary rounds, players will be drawn into groups of 3. 2004 Singles results will be taken into account in the grouping. Each player has to complete 2 games against the other 2 players in the group and be Marker for one game when the other 2 players in his/her group compete. • On the competition day, players in the same group have to decide which two to play first by drawing lots. The loser of the first game will play with the marker in the second game. • There will be a change of rink after each game. A maximum 30 minutes of rest time is allowed in between each game. Upon agreement of all the 3 players, games can be continued with lesser rest time provided the rink for the next game is available. • For each new game, roll up of 2 bowls in each direction is allowed. • Since games for each group will be played on the same day, no substitute for the Marker duty is allowed. The player who fails to fulfill the marker duty will be disqualified from the rest of the competition. • In the preliminary rounds, depending on the number of players participating in the competition, there may be groups with only 2 players. In this case, each player has to play 2 games against the same player. In this case each player has to arrange for a Marker for at least one game. • Point system: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Winner of a match by winning 2 straight sets scores 2 points. ○ Losing the match by losing the first and second sets will score no points. ○ Winner of one set and the tie break scores 1.5 points. ○ Draw on both sets but winning the tie break scores 1.5 points. ○ Draw on both sets but losing the tie break scores 1 points ○ Losing 1 match by losing with a win in either the first or the second sees will score 1 point. • The player with the highest points in each group will proceed to the next round of the competition. Where there is a draw in the points, the winner will be decided by shots differences in the first instance. Then by the points scored in the match between them if shots difference is same. As for best seconds, if points and shots differences are the same, it will be decided by number of ends won. If still the same, it be then decided by tossing a coin. • Depending on the number of players participating, the best seconds may be allowed to proceed to the next round of competition as well.
